

You are cordially invited to the Annual Dinner

for WHITE WAVE's performance and rehearsal space in DUMBO

Wednesday, January 24

7:00 PM - Benefit Performances

8:30 PM - Reception, Black-Tie Optional

WHITE WAVE

John Ryan Theater

25 Jay Street (waterfront), DUMBO

WHITE WAVE launches the Cool New York 2007 DANCE Festival with a dazzling evening of performance and celebration at its ANNUAL DINNER on Wednesday, January 24. The benefit highlights WHITE WAVE's 19 extraordinary years of accomplishment as well as future projects including the building of a new WHITE WAVE Theater, aimed to open in 2010. Stunning performances by Amos Pinhasi, Isabel Gotzkowsky and Friends, Yoshiko Chuma and The School of Hard Knocks, Pascal Benichou, T. Lang, WHITE WAVE Young Soon Kim Dance Company, Tiffany Mills Company, Amy Marshall Dance Company will be followed by a black-tie champagne reception and buffet dinner. Tickets include entry into raffle for dinner- for- two at a local eatery and La Mer gift bag.

Tickets: $50/person

Reservations by response return card by January 17, 2007

or at  (212) 868-4444, <http://www.whitewavedance.com>

call WHITE WAVE at (718) 855-8822, or e-mail info@whitewavedance.com

Directions: F train to York St. Information: www.whitewavedance.com

This program is supported, in part, by public funds from the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs as well as Emma A Sheaffer Charitable Trust, Mertz Gilmore Foundation, Korean Cultural Service, NYC. WHITE WAVE also has received support from The JOHN RYAN COMPANY, Samsung Electronics America, Inc., The Korea Society, The Asian American Arts Alliance's JP Morgan Chase Regrant Program, Independence Bank, Brooklyn Borough President Marty Markowitz's Office, City Council, David Yassky, Decentralization Program of the New York State Council on the Arts. In Kings County, this program is administered by the Brooklyn Arts Council, Inc. (BAC). and the support of individual donors.

ANNUAL DINNER BENEFIT